

The Major League Baseball Festival and the 2010 IBAF World Junior Baseball Championship

Overview

The Festival is a traveling baseball amusement park where fans of all ages can test their baseball skills and discover the excitement of Major League Baseball.

2010 IBAF World Juniors Fan Festival Features & Attractions:

- Two Inflatable Batting Cages
- 'Pitching Mound' (pitch speed)
- 'Steal Home' (baserunning challenge)

An Event for People of all Ages

Batting Cages

- Participants can try out their swing in two inflatable Batting Cages to see how far they can hit – home runs win prizes!
- Batters can choose to face different speed fastballs, curve balls and sliders depending on their ability

Pitcher's Mound

- Friends and family can challenge each other to see who boasts the fastest fastball on the 'Pitcher's Mound'
- A state-of-the-art speed gun measures each of the participant's pitches in MPH or KPH

Steal Home

- This Festival attraction allows fans the chance to race against their friends and compare their times against the Major Leaguers at the 'Steal Home' baserunning challenge

Location

- The MLB International Fan Festival will be located outside the Port Arthur Arthur Stadium in the parking lot across from the Thunder Bay Community Auditorium during the IBAF 2010 World Junior Baseball Championship.
